Marjorie Ella (Griffen) Gaddie
March 6, 1917 – January 11, 1990

The Platte County Record-Times
January 17, 1990

Graveside services for Marjorie Ella Gaddie, 72, were held at 2 p.m. Monday, Jan. 15 at the Wheatland Cemetery, with the Rev. Dennis Clermont officiating.

Marjorie Ella Gaddie died at the Platte County Memorial hospital in Wheatland Jan. 11 following a long illness

She was born March 6, 1917 in Chattanooga, Tenn., the daughter of Robert D. and Jennie (Carpenter) Griffin. She was raised and educated in Tennessee. In 1936, the family moved to Louisville, Ky., where she attended Ahrens Trade School.

In 1946, she married Roy Gaddie in Louisville. In 1970, she returned to Tennessee. In 1985, she moved to Longmont, Colo., where she lived for two years. In 1987, she moved to Wheatland to be close to her daughter, Janice Gibson.

Marjorie was interested in architectural design as a hobby. She is survived by a daughter, Janice Gibson, and three grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband and her parents.

The Platte Funeral Chapel was in charge of arrangements.