Doris Mae (Cook) Oates
December 28, 1921 – January 2, 1979

The Platte County Record-Times
January 3, 1979

Last rites will be held for Doris Mae Oates Thursday, Jan. 4, 1979, at 10:30 a.m. at the United Methodist Church with Rev. Virgil Lamm officiating. Interment will be at the Wheatland Cemetery. Mrs. Oates passed away Monday at the Platte County Memorial Hospital.

Serving as pallbearers will be Chet Marshall, Al Juschka, Einer Mickelsen, Bob McLelland, Steve Haeberle, and Buck Evans. Schrader-Prell Funeral Home is in charge of the local arrangements. A memorial has been established to the Platte County Memorial Hospital.

Doris was born Dec. 28, 1921 in Wheatland and was educated in the local school system. She met Charlie Oates in Wheatland and they were married here May 8, 1946. Doris and Charlie moved to Texas, Cheyenne, Rawlins, and back to Wheatland where he held various police and sheriff department positions. She had previously been very active with Avon, winning numerous sales awards.

She is survived by her husband, Charles of Wheatland; three brothers, Don and Harold Cook of Wheatland, and Earl Cook of Dubois; and one sister, Violet P. Henze of Cheyenne. She was preceded in death by an infant sister, Elouise.