

BATEMAN, JACK DIEHL
March 5, 1934-October 18, 1960

Jack Diehl Bateman, 28, resident of Wheatland for the past six months, died Tuesday from carbon monoxide poisoning, having pipe the exhaust into his car with a garden hose. His body was found by Eddie Wilhelm in the Wilhelm pasture, 3 miles north of Wheatland. No inquest was scheduled in the suicide. A note was left for his mother.

Funeral services will be held Friday from the Schrader Chapel at 2 p.m. with the Rev. Robert Johnson conducting the services. Interment will be in the Wheatland cemetery.

The son of Ruth Kerns and Richard Bateman, the deceased lived in California and served in the armed forces prior to coming here. He was born in Wheatland on March 5, 1932.

Survivors include his mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Helsley of Vallejo, Calif.; and one sister, Mrs. Shirley Pries, also of Vallejo.

Pallbearers will be Perry Parsons, Dick Peters, Max Shafer, Ed Corn, Jim Richie and Steve Black.