

BERTINE, MARY E. ANGELL
September 7, 1829-April 22, 1905

Mrs. Mary. E. Bertine died at the home of H. Mudd, on Sybille, last Saturday, April 22nd, after a protracted illness. Mary E. Angell was born September 7th, 1829, at Galen, Wyane county, New York. She was married to William B. Bertine November 10th 1852, at the latter place. At the age of 27 years, she joined the Baptist church at Mount Vernon, New York, with her husband, to which organization she belonged at the time of her death.

The deceased is survived by her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Henry Mudd, and three grandchildren, Alfred H. and Leo B. Sheldon, and Master Don L. Mudd, all of this place.

Funeral services were held at the M.E. church of this city on Tuesday, Rev. DeLaBarre, conducting the same, and interment was made in the Wheatland cemetery.

Mrs. Bertine accompanied her husband to Wheatland last fall, since which time they have made their home with Mr. and Mrs. Mudd. She had been in very feeble health for several years, and although her demise was expected at any time, the news of her death cast a gloom over everyone who had made her acquaintance. She was a kind and indulgent wife and mother, and the bereaved relatives have the sincere sympathy of everyone in their affliction.
