

BLUNCK, GEORGE DENNIS
December 3, 1887-April 14, 1918

George Dennis Blunck, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Blunck, was born in Laramie county, Colorado, Dec. 3rd, 1887. Departed this life April 14, 1918 age 30 years, 4 months and 11 days.

He lived in Colorado until thirteen years ago when he came to Wyoming locating near Wheatland where he has resided ever since. He was a member of the Yeoman lodge in good standing at the time of his death holding membership at Uva, Wyo. He and his father made their home together, and it was a home of hospitality. He was ever ready to serve and assist his many friends. He will be missed for his many acts of kindness. It is not how long we live, but how well we live that counts, and all feel that a good life has gone from our midst. The immediate relatives are father, brother Ralph, and a sister, Mrs. Holcomb, all of Uva, Wyo., and a sister, Mrs. A.R. Jewell of Leadore, Idaho. He is preceded to the better world by his mother, a brother and a sister. The family have the sympathy of all in their bereavement. Funeral services were held in the Congregational Church, Apr. 16th. The choir rendered beautiful and appropriate music. Interment in the Wheatland cemetery. Funeral under direction of Harry H. Pepper.
