

BRANDLE, KATHRYN
July 22, 1861-March 14, 1933

Mrs. Fred Brandle, aged 72 years and 8 months, passed away at the family home in Wheatland about midnight Tuesday night. Although she had been in poor health for some months, her fatal illness dates from early Sunday morning, after which she went into a coma and never regained consciousness.

By her bedside at the end were her husband, her sons Ben, of Wheatland, and George, of Rock Rover, and her daughters, Mrs. Madge King, of Wheatland, and Mrs. Emma Mannix, of Omaha, Nebraska. The other children surviving are Mrs. Anna Grady, of Hoboken, N.J., and William, of Canada, and there are eleven grandchildren.

Mrs. Brandle was an exemplary wife and mother, much loved not only by her family, but by all who knew her. She was born in New York City where she grew to womanhood and fifty-two years ago the 9th of last December she and Mr. Brandle were united in marriage in Jersey City, N.J. About twenty-five years ago the family came to Wyoming, first living on a ranch northwest of Wheatland, later moving into town where Mr. Brandle was in the employ of the Continental Oil Co. until incapacitated by the infirmities of age.

Funeral services will be held Friday under the direction of the Lyla Watson Funeral Home.
