

BRUNT, JULIA ANN
March 17, 1848-September 9, 1916

Mrs. Julia Ann Brunt died on Saturday, Sept. 9, at the home of her son, Bert Brunk, just north of town, from a complication of troubles. She was born March 17, 1848, at Buffton, Ohio. While resided at Myrtle, Nebr., she united with the M.E. church of which she remained a member until her transfer to the church triumphant. Her life was one of privation, pain and patience. Her last words were "Jesus, Jesus, how can it be?" Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon from the Christian church, conducted by Rev. John R. Patrick, and the remains were laid to rest in the Wheatland cemetery. To friends and loved ones, we say look beyond this vale of tears and see Jesus and this one at rest with Him.
