

GOODRICH, CLEMENT Z.

November 17, 1863-December 24, 1936

Funeral services were held Saturday at Longwith's chapel for Clement Z.

Goodrich who died on Christmas Eve of a heart attack.

Mr. Goodrich was born in Indiana November 17, 1863, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Goodrich. In 1894 he came to Wyoming from Colorado where he had resided for some time. He had been a widower since 1895 when his wife died. Her body was the first to be buried in the Wheatland cemetery. No children were born to them. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Ella Jamison, Season, Oregon and a brother, C.W. Goodrich of Wheatland.

Mr. Goodrich was a likeable man, a strong booster for the state and most thoroughly interested in mining and hopeful the big hills west of town would some day yield a fortune.

Rev. J.L. Williams of the First Methodist Episcopal church was in charge of the services.
