

MADIGAN, ELIZABETH MARIE MCGUIRE

March 8, 1894-December 6, 1975

Mrs. Elizabeth Marie Madigan, 81, passed away Saturday, December 6, 1975 at the Platte County Memorial Hospital. Last rites were conducted by Pastor Paul Bundschun at the Schrader-Prell Chapel, Wednesday, December 10, 1975. Interment was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mrs. Madigan was born March 8, 1894. A resident here for the last 14 years, she had previously lived and worked in Denver, Colo. She was a retired store detective of the May D & F Company. Here in Wheatland, she was affiliated with the Trinity Lutheran Church.

Her husband, Martin, preceded her in death in 1961. She is survived by four brothers, Leonard McGuire of Winter Haven, Florida, Alec McGuire of Bassett, Nebraska, George McGuire of Fallon, Nevada, and Eugene McGuire of Mason City, Iowa; two sisters, Rose Pearce of Pond City, Oklahoma and Eva Farley of Portland, Oregon.

In Wheatland, she is survived by one nephew, Alvin Jessen; and five nieces, Mabel Miller, Elizabeth Bohl, Leslie Juschka, Hazel Klein and Ella Burzlaff.

Serving as pallbearers were James Bohl, Fred Juschka, Troy Klein, Russ Burzlaff, Roy Hitt, and Charles Cornwall.