

MAGEE, HOMER C.
1868-April 1906

The remains of H.C. Magee, an account of whose death appeared in these columns last week, were shipped to Wheatland from Rosston, Idaho, and funeral services were held at the Congregational church on Monday. Rev. J.W. Moore preached the funeral sermon and the Modern Woodmen lodge also held services, of which organization the deceased was a member.

The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved wife and children.
