

Alvis "Punch" Mark Marshall

5-3-1990

Funeral services for Alvis "Punch" Mark Marshall, age 76, were held at the Platte Funeral Chapel Monday, May 7 with Andy Gudahl, minister, officiating. Interment followed in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mr. Marshall died May 3 at the Platte County Memorial Hospital in Wheatland following a long illness.

Alvis "Punch" Mark Marshall was born July 3, 1913 the son of Harry and Mary (Peters) Marshall at McCook, Neb. He was reared and educated in Cheyenne and Wheatland schools. The family moved to Wheatland in 1918 where they farmed southwest of town. They moved to Cheyenne in 1922 and then returned to Wheatland in 1926 where they resumed farming.

"Punch" married Doris L. Preuit on Sept. 29, 1939 in Harrisburg, Neb. They farmed on the Wheatland Flats until 1957 when they moved into town. "Punch" worked seventeen years for Veterinary Services, Inc., until his retirement.

He was a member of the Paradise #29 I.O.O.F. Lodge in Wheatland.

Mr. Marshall is survived by his wife, Doris, a son, Alvis E. "Punch" Marshall and two grandsons, Troy and Toby, all of Wheatland. Two brothers, Chester of Wheatland, and Ernset of Laramie, and four sisters, Ethel Belle Cook of Cheyenne, Elizabeth Shafer of Twin Falls, Idaho, Pearl Kissel of Lingle and Zonetta Haeberle of Wheatland, also remain.

Serving as pallbearers were Gene Davis, Tom Preuit, Randy Davis, Brooks Shepard, Charles Woolsey and Marlin Marshall. Serving as honorary pallbearers were H.D. Schroeder, Les Zweig, Cecil Cox, Wallace Baker and Don Cook.

He was preceded in death by his parents, one brother, Kenneth, and one sister, Alice Edminston. He will be remembered as a hard working, devoted family man.

A memorial to the Wheatland Community Scholarship Fund would be greatly appreciated by his family.

The Platte Funeral Chapel was in charge of arrangements.
