

WALN, GLADYS D. TURNER
January 26, 1902-October 23, 1982

Services for Gladys D. Waln, 80, who died Saturday, Oct. 23, 1982, in Platte County Memorial Hospital, were held Tuesday at the Schrader-Prell Funeral Chapel with the Rev. Virgil Lamm officiating.

She was born Jan. 26, 1902, in Formosa, Kan., the daughter of Ira and Mary Myers Turner. She moved with her family to Wyoming in 1910 and attended rural schools around the Wheatland area.

She married George T. Waln March 25, 1921 and the couple maintained their home in Wheatland. Her life revolved mainly around her family.

She is survived by her son, Everett Waln of Wheatland; one brother, Percy Turner of Wheatland; two sisters, Della Miner of Loveland, Colo., and Lucy Johnson of Cheyenne; and by two grandchildren, one step-grandchild, and three great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, George, three brothers and two sisters.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

A memorial has been established to the Laramie Peak Museum.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
