

WRIGHT, CHAN W.

?-April 16, 1923

Following a third paralytic stroke, Chan W. Wright, a county patient since last October, died at the home of Mrs. Minnie Wheeler, where he was being cared for Monday and was buried in the county plot in the local cemetery. He had none but distant relatives of whose whereabouts he knew nothing. A short service was conducted by Rev. E.L. Butler at the grave. Wright lived just inside the Platte county line and his post office was Fort Laramie. He was 46 years old. He was a good worker and was prospering moderately before being stricken, having had several horses and some equipment.
