

Mary Ann Edmiston

1-18-1994

WHEATLAND — Services for Mary Ann Edmiston, 90, will be conducted at 2 p.m. Friday at the church of the Nazarene in Wheatland by Pastor Chan Bayne. Interment will follow in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mrs. Edmiston died Jan. 18, 1994, at the Platte County Memorial Hospital following a long illness. She was born Aug. 10, 1903, at Mack Creek, Mo., the daughter of John Ira and Margaret (Mann) Park. The family moved to Ft. Collins, Colo., where Mrs. Edmiston was raised and educated.

She lived in Wheatland from 1926 until her death. On Dec. 27, 1929, she married George Henry Edmiston in Gering, Neb. She worked at various local restaurants as a cook. She was a member of the Church of the Nazarene.

Survivors include six children, Faye McElhane of Wheatland, George Junior Edmiston of Casper, Shirley Ann Elmore of Casper, Jessie Jay Edmiston of Tucson, Ariz., Charlotte Jane Chapman of Cheyenne, and Milton Ray Edmiston of Casper; 17 grandchildren; 34 great-grandchildren; and three great-great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, two sisters, two brothers, and one granddaughter. Family and friends may call at the funeral chapel on Thursday 10 a.m.-8 p.m. and Friday 9 a.m.-noon.

Memorials to the Church of the Nazarene in Wheatland would be appreciated by the family.

The Platte Funeral Chapel is in charge of arrangements.
