Grace a resident of Wheatland died at the Platte County Memorial Hospital in Wheatland on Thursday, November 17, 2011 after a short illness.

Grace was born in York, Nebraska on October 9, 1923 the daughter of Samauel and Leona Christina (Middleton) Edmiston. Grace graduated from Wheatland High School in 1942.

Grace and Samuel Clayton Isabell were married in Gering, Nebraska on June 25, 1942. She worked as the office manager of Salt Creek Freightways in Wheatland until she retired in 1987.

Grace loved gardening, reading, garage sales, auctions, and being with family. She was a master at being there for those that needed her and educating them whether it was playing cards, canning, gardening, or just how to deal with the trials of life. She knew how to raise children before books were used, and she passed that on not only to her children but also to her grandchildren.
