

KENTY, EMELINE CARROLL
1856-January 13, 1944

Mrs. Daniel Kenty, nearly 88 years of age, died last Thursday evening at the Wheatland hospital. Services were conducted at 2 p.m. Monday at the Wheatland Congregational church of which she was a long time member. Pall bearers were Willis Stam, Tom Shepard, Pete Weber, W.H. Shoemaker, Charles Klassert, and S.W. McGinley. Music was furnished by Mesdames George Williams, C.R. Stumpff, and J.A. Corman.

Emeline Carroll was born in Milford, Nova Scotia and in 1878 was married to Daniel Kenty. They came to Wyoming in the same year, living for a year at Tie Siding before going to Rawlins to reside until 1897. They came to Wheatland at that time to make their permanent home.

Surviving are her four daughters, Miss Bertha and Mrs. Kathryn Chase of Wheatland, Mrs. Margaret Hinds of Woodburn, Ore. and Mrs. Hazel Brainard of Bloomington, Calif.; two sons, Roy D. of Napa, Calif. and William H. of San Bernardino, Calif.; thirteen grandchildren and twenty great grandchildren. Her husband preceded her in death twenty-one years ago, and a daughter, Mrs. Edna Dorman, three years ago.
