

KNIGHT, SHEPPARD MASON

July 23, 1888-April 2, 1966

Sheppard Mason Knight, a retired painter, succumbed in Platte County Memorial Hospital on April 2, 1966 following an extended illness. He had been a Wheatland resident for many years and was well known for his painting ability.

Mr. Knight was born in Colorado Springs, Colo. on July 23, 1888. He was married to Iva Ruth Taylor on Sept. 7, 1957 in Mexico. The Knights resided in Denver for several years before moving back to Wheatland.

Relatives left to mourn include his wife, a son, Earl Knight of Gallup, New Mexico, and a daughter, Mrs. William Jones, Billings, Mont.

Services were held at the Schrader Chapel on April 5 at 11:00 a.m. with Mr. Dale Scheffler officiating. Interment was in the Wheatland cemetery. Serving as pallbearers were James Harris, Harold Garrett, Jack Nixon, Vern Blodgett, Gordon Drury and Frank Rumsey.
