UTTER, SELMA KATHERINE WIEGAND
November 18, 1890-August 4, 1938

Selma Katherine Wiegand, oldest of eight children born to Mr. and Mrs. J.F. Wiegand, was born at Plymouth, Nebraska, November 18, 1890, and died in the Cheyenne Memorial hospital August 4, 1938 at the age of 48 years, 8 months and 16 days.

She moved to Wheatland with her parents in 1908. On August 20, 1909, she married Vincent L. Utter. To this union five children were born: Mrs. Alice Holmes, Ellen, Emerson, Lucille, and Verona, all of Wheatland.

Left to mourn her loss are her parents, husband, children and two grandchildren, Freddie and Barbara Jean Holmes, one sister, Hattie of Loveland, Colorado, six brothers, Bill and Albert of Loveland, Frank, Herb and Jake of California, and Louie of Wheatland, five aunts, six uncles, four nieces, four nephews and one great-nephew.

She will sadly missed by many neighbors and friends.

In early girlhood, she united with the Trinity Lutheran church. She has been an untiring worker in the Muir Sunday school and Ladies Aid and was a faithful member of the Country Women's club. Last January, assisted by her sister club members, she planned and carried through most successfully an unusually large program honoring her parents' golden wedding anniversary. There was never a task too big for her to undertake or small enough for her to overlook. No matter how pressing her duties, she always had time to help anyone who needed her. She was a loyal daughter, wife, mother and grandmother and a friend to everyone.
