

WILKINSON, THOMAS E.
January 23, 1893-January 8, 1954

Thomas E. Wilkinson, a lifelong resident of this community, passed away January 8, at Memorial hospital in Cheyenne, following a lengthy illness. Mr. Wilkinson was born at Wheatland, January 23, 1893, and was sixty-one years of age at the time of his death.

Mr. Wilkinson was married July 1, 1925 to Goldie Elaine Noe, two sons were born to the Wilkinsons, George, who survives, and Harold, who preceded his father in death March 8, 1940.

Mr. Wilkinson worked for J.F. Turpin for a number of years as foreman of bridge construction in all parts of the state. Since 1929, he had engaged in ranching, northwest of Wheatland. Mr. Wilkerson was a member of the Catholic church and the Knights of Columbus.

The rosary was recited for Mr. Wilkinson at the Schrader chapel at 7:30, and final rites were held at St. Patrick's church on Tuesday morning at 9:30 a.m., with Father Clement Orth officiating.

Pallbearers were William Howard, John Mylet, Kenneth Barnes, Glen Gorman, Jerry Cunningham and Frank English.

Surviving Mr. Wilkinson in addition to his wife and son are three brothers, Frank, John and William Wilkinson.