

7-21-1985 DALE L. WRIGHT

Services for Dale Wright, 74, who died July 21 were held Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. in the Schrader-Prell Funeral Chapel with Dan Barcus officiating.

Wright was born in Wheatland, March 26, 1911, the son of James and Daisey Wright. He received his education in Wheatland and spent his early years farming here with his father. For many years he did contract work in the area.

He and Goldie Blodgett were married Feb. 17, 1934, in Gering, Neb. After their marriage, they farmed west of Wheatland until his retirement years.

He was a member of the Odd Fellows Lodge and the Golden Age Club.

Survivors include his wife, Goldie of Wheatland, a son, Melvin Dale Wright of Bosler, a daughter, Betty E. Cochran of Torrington, four sisters: Viva Putnan of Wenatchee, Wash., Mildred Sommers of Wheatland, Ruth Sommers of Cheyenne and Wilma Sommers of Laramie, eight grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Memorial contributions in his name may be made to the Senior Citizen Center.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
