

James Clarence Yorges

Funeral services for James Clarence Yorges, 56, was held Tues., Oct. 8, 2002, at 2:00 p.m. at Platte Funeral Chapel in Wheatland, Wyoming, with Andy Gudahl, Minister of The First Christian officiating. Interment will be in the Wheatland Cemetery. Mr. Yorges died Friday, October 4, 2002, at Lander Valley Medical Center in Lander, Wyoming.

James was born August 9, 1946, in Torrington, Wyoming, the son of Clarence W. and Marjorie Irene (Raker) Yorges. He attended Yoder Grade School in Yoder, Wyoming and then attended the State Training School in Lander. He then worked and received further training at Community Entry Services in Lander.

Jim lived in a group home setting and had an apartment. He enjoyed county-western music and western movies. He was loved by everyone who knew him. Jim was a friendly, happy man, seeing the "glass half full" rather than "half empty". He loved to join his family at the annual Memorial Day picnic but, chose to be with his friends in Lander for the Christmas holidays.

He survived by his mother, Marjorie Marlatt of Wheatland; two brothers and their wives, Ralph and Sandi "Sis" Yorges and Don and Bonnie Yorges of Wheatland and numerous nieces and nephews.

Jim was preceded in death by his father.

Memorials to Community Entry Services, Bomart Center, One Phylliss Lynn Drive, Lander, WY, 82520 would be appreciated by the family.
