

Troy Ray Yost

11-16-1992

Funeral services for Troy Ray Yost, 37 were Thursday, Nov. 19 at the Wheatland United Methodist Church, with Reverend Brud Coy officiating. Interment was in the Wheatland Cemetery with Reverend Doctor James S. Vuocolo officiating. Troy died Monday, Nov. 16 near Wheatland.

He was born August 20, 1955, in Wheatland the son of Raymond and Bette (Phillippi) Yost. He was reared and educated in Wheatland, graduating from Wheatland High School in 1973. He attended Eastern Wyoming College in Torrington and taught in the Peak Program in Wheatland. He married Marti Miller on May 26, 1989 in Wheatland.

Troy was involved in ranching meatcutting, and breaking horses. He was a licensed guide, a substitute teacher, avid golfer, bullrider, hunter, and Western wildlife artist. He competed in the 1982 National Association of Rodeo Cowboys in bullriding. He was a member of the Wyoming Golf Association, Foundation of North American Wild Sheep, and the Wyoming Rodeo Cowboy Association. Every kid that knew him - loved him.

He is survived by his wife, Marti (Miller) Yost, of Wheatland; his parents, Raymond and Bette Yost of Wheatland; daughters, Bailey and Darbi Yost ; maternal grandmother, Kathryn Baker of Wheatland; two brothers, Don Yost of Cody, and Ron Yost of Houston, Texas; and two nieces, Sommer and Brittany Yost of Cody. He was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents and maternal grandfather.

Pallbearers were Mort Tillman, Paul Robinson, Clyde Harris, Tracy Hunt, Jimr , McAuley, Bruce Brown, Robin Graves, and Kelly Artery. Honorary pallbearers were all of his many friends.

The Troy Yost Memorial Fund has been established for his daughters, Bailey and Darbi, in care of the Norwest Bank Wyoming in Wheatland, P.O. Box 669, Wheatland Wy 82201.